2.

Leading

Do they understand feel?

Are their eyes balanced?

How good are your rope skills?

Are they comfortable with you in all places?

Can they long-rein?

Are they thinking in the direction of feel?

Can you alter their speed?

Can they cope with belly rope?

Can they lower / raise their head whilst leading?

Can they cope with breaching rope?

Can they follow the feel – not just your body language?

Do you need to undo Drive through Leading?

3.

Ridden Skills

Where to Begin

Are they heavy in the front?

Are you offering the Sweet Spot?

Can they back up well?

Can you interrupt their thought? (Are they adjustable?)

Do they have Life + Search through the reins?

Can they find Centre (the Sweet Spot)?

Do they have Perpetual Motion?

Do they carry any brace?

Do they have Body Control through the Reins Only

Can they match your rhythm in the trot?

Are they comfortable in Acceleration?

These are just SOME suggestions for areas you could look into – they are not in any order
